

I oppose allowing this technology.

Studies and tests have shown it will cause a high level of interference to HF communications. The will severely impact government public safety communications as well as amateur radio.